Place of Performance: Podgorica, Montenegro
Proposed BPA Term: October 1st, 2022 – September 31st, 2027
Responses are due by: 10 AM on September 12th, 2022 (CET)

Description of Products:
Just-in-time Expendable Office Supplies

Dear Prospective Vendor,

The American Embassy invites you to enter into a BPA with the U.S. Embassy Podgorica. The American Embassy intends to establish a BPA to one or more responsible companies submitting fair and reasonable prices for ‘Just-in-time Expendable Office Supplies’.

BPAs may be awarded to firms that are technically acceptable, responsible, and clearly intend to sell products or services to the US Government at or below market prices. The Contracting Officer will only award the number of BPAs that is sufficient to meet the Government needs and regulatory competition requirements. Technical acceptability of prospective vendors is evaluated by ensuring that the firm is able to comply with the terms of the Blanket Purchase Agreement.

A BPA is an Agreement, not a contract or purchase order. It is like a charge account that sets forth terms and conditions prior to an actual purchase. The Government is not obligated to purchase any definite amount under this BPA. If a need arises, an authorized representative of the Government may issue an order following the procedures outlined in the BPA. If the BPA holder accepts the order, then a binding contract between the Government and BPA holder will exist for that specific order.

DETERMINATION OF RESPONSIBILITY OF PROSPECTIVE VENDORS

The Contracting Officer will determine technical acceptability by ensuring that the firm is able to comply with the terms of this BPA. Responsibility will be based on requirements of FAR 9.1.

1) Evidence that you operate an established business in the form of a copy of Excerpt issued by the Central Registry of Business Entities
2) A copy of your Tax Identification Certificate
3) A copy of Company’s Registration Certificate
4) Ability to comply with the required performance period, taking into consideration all existing commercial and governmental business commitments
5) Satisfactory record of integrity and business ethics.
6) Necessary equipment and facilities or the ability to obtain them; and be otherwise qualified and eligible to receive an award under applicable laws and regulations (please include information regarding location and size of any warehouses, and number and type of vehicles used)
7) NDAA compliance (fill in representations under 52.204-24 & 52.204-26)
8) SAM.gov company registration and Unique Entity Identifier number (instructions on how to register will be provided on a separate tutorial document)
9) Price catalog of all office supplies items on offer, including information which of the cataloged items are kept in stock

The vendors (BPA holders) interested in this business opportunity shall be prepared to accept BPA terms, conditions, and clauses, by signing and returning a copy of the BPA to the U.S. Embassy Contracting Officer. An example of the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) and Department of State Acquisition Regulations (DOSAR) clauses is included below. The actual set of clauses associated with a BPA may vary depending on the type of goods or services covered by the Blanket Purchase Agreement.

Since a BPA is not a contract, neither party is bound to its terms. However, if an order is issued under the BPA and the BPA-holder agrees to provide the commercial item or service, that individual order becomes a binding contract between the parties and both parties are then bound to all the terms and conditions in the BPA for that order. An estimated annual volume amount will be indicated on the BPA but that amount will not be binding on the agreement.

The BPA holder shall designate a Project Manager or an Account Representative who shall be the BPA holder’s point of contact for the purpose of BPA orders and invoices resulting from the orders.

Any purchase made under a BPA will be based on mutually agreed upon prices obtained either in writing or orally by telephone or personal contact at the time the Government’s need for the goods and/or service arises by an ordering official/authorized caller. The Contracting Officer will establish and provide BPA holders with a list of Government personnel (BPA Callers) authorized to place orders on behalf of the Government. BPA Callers are only authorized to order goods and/or services within the boundaries established in the BPA.

All responsible Vendors are invited to send information about their companies to podgoricasolicitations@state.gov no later than 10 AM on September 12th, 2022 (local time-CET).

For line items covered by the WTO GPA, the Government will evaluate offers of U.S.-made or designated country end products without regard to the restrictions of the Buy American statute. (h) Certification Regarding Responsibility Matters (Executive Order 12689). (Applies only if the contract value is expected to exceed the simplified acquisition threshold.) The offeror certifies, to the best of its knowledge and belief, that the offeror and/or any of its principals—

1. □ Are, □ are not presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, or declared ineligible for the award of contracts by any Federal agency;

2. □ Have, □ have not, within a three-year period preceding this offer, been convicted of or had a civil judgment rendered against them for: commission of fraud or a criminal offense in connection with obtaining, attempting to obtain, or performing a Federal, state or local government contract or subcontract; violation of Federal or state antitrust statutes relating to the submission of offers; or commission of embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, tax evasion, violating Federal criminal tax laws, or receiving stolen property;

3. □ Are, □ are not presently indicted for, or otherwise criminally or civilly charged by a Government entity with, commission of any of these offenses enumerated in paragraph (h)(2) of this clause; and

4. □ Have, □ have not, within a three-year period preceding this offer, been notified of any delinquent Federal taxes in an amount that exceeds the threshold at 9.104-5(a)(2) for which the liability remains unsatisfied.

(i) Taxes are considered delinquent if both of the following criteria apply:

A. The tax liability is finally determined. The liability is finally determined if it has been assessed. A liability is not finally determined if there is a pending administrative or judicial challenge. In the case of a judicial challenge to the liability, the liability is not finally determined until all judicial appeal rights have been exhausted.

B. The taxpayer is delinquent in making payment. A taxpayer is delinquent if the taxpayer has failed to pay the tax liability when full payment was due and required. A taxpayer is not delinquent in cases where enforced collection action is precluded.

(ii) Examples.

(A) The taxpayer has received a statutory notice of deficiency, under I.R.C. §6212, which entitles the taxpayer to seek Tax Court review of a proposed tax deficiency. This is not a delinquent tax because it is not a final tax liability. Should the taxpayer seek Tax Court review, this will not be a final tax liability until the taxpayer has exercised all judicial appeal rights.
(B) The IRS has filed a notice of Federal tax lien with respect to an assessed tax liability, and the taxpayer has been issued a notice under I.R.C. §6320 entitling the taxpayer to request a hearing with the IRS Office of Appeals contesting the lien filing, and to further appeal to the Tax Court if the IRS determines to sustain the lien filing. In the course of the hearing, the taxpayer is entitled to contest the underlying tax liability because the taxpayer has had no prior opportunity to contest the liability. This is not a delinquent tax because it is not a final tax liability. Should the taxpayer seek tax court review, this will not be a final tax liability until the taxpayer has exercised all judicial appeal rights.

(C) The taxpayer has entered into an installment agreement pursuant to I.R.C. §6159. The taxpayer is making timely payments and is in full compliance with the agreement terms. The taxpayer is not delinquent because the taxpayer is not currently required to make full payment.

(D) The taxpayer has filed for bankruptcy protection. The taxpayer is not delinquent because enforced collection action is stayed under 11 U.S.C. §362 (the Bankruptcy Code).

(i) Certification Regarding Knowledge of Child Labor for Listed End Products (Executive Order 13126).
