

TECHGirls

ACHIEVEMENTS

TechGirls is an international summer exchange program designed to empower and inspire young women to pursue careers in science and technology.

SINCE ITS INCEPTION,

8,900

individuals have been trained in digital and leadership skills, including computer basics, robotics, film making, building websites, app development, and data analysis by TechGirls.

APPLYING SKILLS

AWARDED IN TECH

60%

of TechGirls report attending and becoming finalists in tech competitions including Lego Engineering Challenges, Microsoft's DigiGirls, Microsoft Challenges, Technovation Challenges, First Robotics, and Cisco's Innovation Grand Challenge.

400+

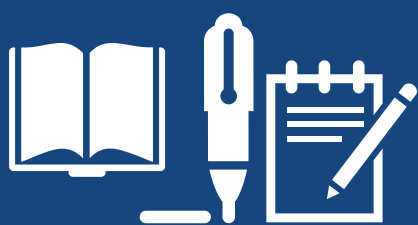

ENGAGING COMMUNITY

community projects were conducted by TechGirls, where 95% of alumnae report that their projects addressed STEM education of girls, public health, narrowing the gender gap, volunteerism, gave exposure to tech for marginalized youth and more.

BOOSTING EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

100%

of alumnae reported tech skills made them more competitive in university enrollment and boosted their confidence to pursue STEM in higher education.

3,450

BUILDING A GLOBAL NETWORK

tech professionals, host families, and their peers have maintained contact with TechGirls .

STUDYING STEM

80%

report now studying medicine, math, computer science, engineering and business.

TechGirls is an initiative of the U.S. Department of State, administered by Legacy International.

